Earlysville Independence Day Celebration 3 pm Tuesday, July 4

Parade will run on Earlysville Road from Earlysville Forest Drive to the Union Church. A detour around the parade route is available through Earlysville Forest to Advance Mills Road and back to Buck Mountain Road.

After the parade concludes, there will be gatherings and refreshments on the grounds of the Union Church and at Buck Mountain Church. You are welcome to park your parade vehicle at the Church to enjoy the day.

Come and walk, watch, drive, wave, cheer. Let's make some new photo memories for 2018.

There are no prizes, but there is loads of fun.

Leo Mallek, parade organizer for 22 years, will assist with lineup.

The fire company leads the parade, followed by Antique cars and trucks

Families	Decorated bicycles, tricycles	Business groups	Scouts

News from the Earlysville Fire Company and Chief Todd Richardson

Your community volunteer fire station needs your help. Earlysville Fire is looking for new members, both for operations and administration. EVFC wants to continue serving our community, but they need more members to continue the service they have providing for more than 50 years. Please consider joining and helping your community and your friends.

Training is available to become a firefighter or EMT to run rescue in the Station 4 ambulance. Provide safety and security to your neighbors. For more information email Chief40@albemarle.org or call the station after 6 pm at 434-973-8862.

Auxiliary members are also essential to support the efforts of those who go into the burning buildings or tend to the sick or injured in the ambulance. There are many opportunities to suit your interests.
